Dear Ms. Kettemborough,

Congratulations! You've been selected for inclusion in the forthcoming 2004-2005 edition of America's Registry of Outstanding Professionals.

Designed as a networking source for the Who's Who of worldwide decision makers, as well as your peers and colleagues, this unique volume recognizes those professional men and women who have achieved outstanding success in their respective fields of endeavor.

Once we receive your data and it passes our initial review, you will be contacted by telephone or mail to complete your professional profile. Should your inclusion be confirmed, Ms. Kettemborough there is never a cost or obligation whatsoever for your appearance in America's Registry.

In order for us to have the most timely and up to date information, please respond to this invitation now, by completing and returning the enclosed information card.

On behalf of America's Registry, we wish you much continued success.

Very truly yours,

Ruth Banks
Editorial Acceptance

P.S. To maximize the networking potential of the publication please make sure to include your e-mail and web information.

Please note: Please rest assured, we never ever share or resell the information you provide us to any other party! Your biographical information is used strictly in America's Registry publications only.
