Dear Mr Kettemborough

YOUR NOMINATION AS INTERNATIONAL EDUCATOR OF THE YEAR

The International Biographical Centre of Cambridge, England is delighted to confirm your nomination as an International Educator of the Year for 2003. This prestigious award will be made available to only a few illustrious individuals whose achievements in teaching stand out in the International Academic and Scholastic Community as decreed by the Research and Advisory Board sitting at the International Biographical Centre in Cambridge, England and this year I have had the pleasure of chairing the selection committee. Over the course of the publication of our leading biographical directories, tens of thousands of biographies have been reviewed and from these only a select few have been chosen for this impressive new accolade. Congratulations on being selected as someone who enthuses and influences our future leaders.

The International Biographical Centre prides itself as being one of the leading biographical reference book publishers in the world with more than 20 Who's Who titles in 132 separate editions. Among these titles, some of which have been established for nearly 30 years, are Dictionary of International Biography, Outstanding People of the 20th Century, Who's Who in Asia and the Pacific Nations and more recently 2000 Outstanding Scientists of the 21st Century.

This award - as International Educator of the Year - is described on the accompanying notice of nomination. You will see that recipients are eligible to display an appealing Commemorative Pictorial Testimonial, a gold-gilt medal of Excellence or an authoritative Official Sash of Office so that you may, with justifiable pride, proclaim your nomination as International Educator of the Year. I trust you will share my excitement at the news of this honour which, I feel, is justifiably deserved.

Sincerely,
